HORRIBLE FATE OF A CRIPPLE

Roasted to Death Beside a Fire Escape.

WAS SHOT BY MASKED ROBBERS

And There is Yet No Clue to the Criminals—Snowing in the Northern Cities.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

New York, Dec. 22.—Mrs. Freida Schlintz, a cripple, was roasted to death this morning in a tenement house within a few feet of a fire escape. Fifteen others were rescued by the daring bravery of the firemen and police. The firemen formed a ladder of their bodies, down which men, women and children climbed. Fireman Martin Oakley was killed and four others were seriously injured.

SNOWING TODAY.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Dec. 22.—Snow is falling here, in Buffalo and Philadelphia this morning. A heavy snow storm and a white Christmas is expected.

DAVID R. LAMBERTH DEAD.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Norwalk, Conn., Dec. 22.—David R. Lamberth, the author who was shot by masked robbers at his home on last Friday, died at one o'clock this morning without having gained consciousness. There is no clue to the guilty parties. Mrs. Lamberth, who was chloroformed by robbers, is in a critical condition. The town has offered two hundred dollars reward for the apprehension and conviction of the criminals.

Too Much Aboard.

Two young men, rather well loaded, created a disturbance at the Benbow yesterday by joining in a hair pulling contest. Many rumors are afloat in regard to the matter and it may all be set straight by the simple declaration that they were too far gone to either hurt each other or for anybody else to hurt them. Therefore no damage was done beyond blocking the sidewalk and raising much idle curiosity. There was a rather officious exhibition of bellicosity by others, in no way concerned, that was much less pardonable.

A SAD SUICIDE.

Daughter of Ex-Secretary of the Navy the Victim.

Washington, Dec. 21—Miss Leillia Herbert, daughter of the former secretary of the navy, committed suicide this morning by jumping from the third story window of her home, on New Hampshire avenue.

She was very prominent in Washington society. She was injured by a fall from her horse three months ago. The fear that she would be a cripple resulted in melancholy and prompted her to the terrible deed.

A Layer of Human Bones.

City of Mexico, Dec. 21.—A letter just received here from William Niven, the New York archæologist, who is making excavations in a prehistoric city in the State of Guerrero, says that he has just made a surprising discovery of a layer of human bones from ten inches to seven feet from the surface, plainly visible on the side of a barranca for fully 300 feet, and which seems to continue for several thousand feet more. This Golgotha is only two hours on horseback north of Chilpaneingo, and is near the southern boundary of the prehistoric cities of Omitlan. He is excavating with great success, unearthing objects of the greatest interest of jade, brachyte, diorite, bone, shell, and terra cotta.

LIQUOR THE CAUSE.

An Emphatic Statement from the Doomed Man.

On last Sunday, only a few hours after the return of Rev. J. W. Lee he visited R. S. Ryan in his cell and asked, among other things, if whiskey had anything to do with his downfall and awfull condition.

The prisoner at first answered rather indifferently that he didn't think it did directly. Mr. Lee then asked him to think the matter over and leave him a statement. Upon a few moments reflection Ryan realized that liquor was primarily the cause and wrote the following letter to Mr. Lee which, through his courtesy, we print:

Mr. Lee:—I promised to write you a few lines and I will do so. I answered you too quick yesterday. It only required a few moments thought to realize that liquor was primarily the cause of my condition. You can say from me had there been no saloons in Greensboro last March, Sonley Ryan would not hang next Thursday, and I pray God to hasten the day when the last saloon door shall close never to open again. Respectfully,

R. S. Ryan.

Jail, Greensboro, N. C., Dec. 20.

This is a strong and emphatic statement, and it comes from a man who must stand before his God in a few short hours. It will furnish food for thoughtful people. It cannot be called the raving of a mad man. Ryan is calm, cool and deliberate. Think about it!

MEETING OF T. P. A.

Several Matters, Including a Banquet, to Come Up.

Some months ago note was made in these columns of the organization here of a Travelers Protective Association. This is an organization that has been a valuable adjunct to the commercial life of every city in the Union. It has been the forerunner and promoter of trade and as such deserves the warm and constant support of all traveling men and of business men generally. It is composed of traveling men and wholesalers. The association here is composed of twenty-two members, while Charlotte's association, organized since ours, has sixty-two members. The association here should wake up. There is no reason why it should not increase its membership.

On next Monday night a meeting will be held in the office of the Simpson-Shields Shoe Co. at 8 o'clock and all members of the association are asked to be present. Several matters are to receive ths attention of the organization, one being arrangements for a banquet. The coming year should be a prosperous one for it.

Ebenezer McSniffle.

Again and again the chief of police of our city has proven himself worthy of our utmost confidence. It is his zeal in unearthing all sorts of mysteries, large and small, and his universal success in his sleuth work has endeared him to the hearts of those who would, but for him, feel called upon to inspect their dark closets and the territory surmounted by the family bedstead. The chief has before him today, however, what he terms a "puzzler." He has given a good deal of his personal attention to a telegram, received from a Rev. Ebenezer Makepeace McSniffle, telling him that he and his company of merrymakers have lost a bride. The case is one of peculiar interest and the chief and his detectives have determined to find out all about it, if possible. The wedding guests will arrive here in a few days and will receive publicly at the Academy of Music, next Tuesday evening, December 28th.

As a good time is promised to all who attend, and as their series of presentations throughout the country has proven a long list of brilliant events, socially and artistically, it is hoped a large attendance will prove to the playerfolk the interest our townspeople have in those who have "Lost—A Bride."

After the Moonshiners.

A party of six revenue officers stopped at the Benbow last night and went away on the noon train—part towards Winston and part toward Raleigh, the leader said, but then the leader did not want to talk and we shall probably hear of some manufacture of "dew" losing his outfit.

The raiders were all "booted and spurred" and armed to the teeth and were evidently not going merely for a holiday jaunt. Capt. Vanderford was the leader and a cool hand he is.

IS DURRANT TO BE HANGED?

Attorneys in the Case Make Another Move.

GEORGE GOULD WILL RETIRE.

From the Presidency of the Missouri Pacific—Frost Kills Lemon and Orange Trees.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

San Francisco, Dec. 22.—Durrant's attorneys have filed notice that they will ask for a change of venue from the recent order of sentence by Judge Bakers on the ground that the court is prejudiced. An appeal to the Governor for a commutation of the sentence on the ground of the relation of the Blanche Lamont and Minnie Williams cases will be made. There will also be an effort made to get the case before the Federal Court.

HEAVY FROSTS.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Los Angeles, Dec. 22.—The recent heavy frosts are reported to have been very injurious to the orange and lemon crops in Southern California.

GOULD TO RETIRE.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Salt Lake City, Dec. 22.—George Gould will retire from the presidency of the Missouri Pacific on March the first. He will be succeeded by S. H. Clark, of the Union Pacific. Gould will take a vacation and will probably make a tour of the world.

HENRY AUGUSTUS RUST DEAD.

Funeral Services Tomorrow Conducted by Rev. S. O. Hall.

Henry Augustus Rust died at his residence, on Asheboro street, at 5:20 o'clock this morning. He was a native of Germany, and was born on April 15, 1834.

He came to Greensboro November 2, 1854, and has resided in this county ever since.

On December 18, 1857, he was married to Miss Friederika D. Garvis, last Saturday being the fortieth anniversary of their marriage.

When about 14 years of age Mr. Rust made a profession of faith in Christ and united with the church. For several years he has been a member of Westminster Presbyterian church of this city, and was a consistant Christian.

For several months he has been in declining health, suffering from a cancer of the stomach.

With perfect resignation he met the death summons. To his pastor and friends he spoke with calmness and composure of his departure.

He leaves a wife and two daughters, Mrs, J. C. Moore and Mrs. G. D. Edmondson.

The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. S. O. Hall at Muir's chapel, tomorrow afternoon, at 1 o'clock.

A 1,700 Mile Canal.

Topeka, Kan., Dec. 21—Governor Leedy has decided to present to the coming Nebraska irrigation convention a plan which, if carried out, will cause the arid plains to blossom as the rose.

The construction of a 1,700 mile canal from Montana to Texas is the startling proposition to be formally made by Governor Leedy to the congress.

The purpose of the canal would be to divert the waters of the Missouri and Mississippi rivers and use them when wanted.

The canal would tap the Missouri river at Milk river in Montana and would empty into the Red river in Texas. The governor says the cost would be $360,000,000.

Big Fire in Mississippi.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 22.—Fire is raging in Columbus, Miss., today.

The Gilmer house and the Western Union telegraph office have been destroyed. The entire business porton of the city is threatened.

A CARD FROM RYAN.

Awaits Death as Calmly as Humane Nature Will Permit.

Editor Evening Telegram:

Sir:—I was handed a little slip this morning entitled, "Come for Immediate Pardon," for which I thank the writer sincerely, but I am persuaded that he misapprehends the grounds upon which I base my hope of heaven.

It is only through the merits of a crucified Saviour who died that all might live, that I have prayed for pardon, and by the holy spirit whispering words of comfort, all is well. Let thy heart be not afraid. I am conscious that my prayers have been heard at the throne of God's mercy and I await death on tomorrow as calmly as humane nature will permit. I shall be baptized and become a member of the Catholic church today, I hope.

Respectfully,

Dec. 22, '97. R. S. Ryan.

RODE ON AN AVALANCHE.

Thrilling Descent of Pike's Peak—One Miner Lives to Tell of It.

Colorado Springs, Dec. 21.—Joe Bradley, a miner and prospector of Cripple Creek, was brought into this city yesterday in a critical condition, the result of riding on an avalanche on Pike's Peak on last Friday. Bradley says that a man whose name he did not know was with him coming over the mountain from Cripple Creek to Colorado Springs. When near the summit of the peak the way became obscure, and they climbed to the top of an eminence endeavoring to find the trail. From this point, Bradley describes the affair as follows:

"The whole mountain side suddenly seemed to give a lurch, and, at a terrific speed, move downward. After what seemed to me an age had elapsed I was thrown against a stump and rendered unconscious. When I regained my senses I discovered, a short distance away, a prospector's cabin. I could not walk, being so badly bruised and frozen, but, after a prayer that I might die, I dragged myself to the cabin, where I was attended by the prospector. My companion I did not see after the starting of the avalanche, and he is surely lost."

Searching parties have endeavored to find Bradley's companion, but as yet the body has not been recovered.

Holiday Rates.

Agents of the C. F. and Y. V. are authorized to sell round trip holiday tickets at the rate of 4 cents a mile one way. This is a rate of 2 cents a mile. If Russia Winters Her Fleet at Port Arthur

JAPAN MAKES A SUGGESTION

Warships Under Prince Henry Sail for Gibraltar—China and Germany May Fight.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Pekin, Dec. 22—The Chinese government has granted Russia permission to winter her Asiatic squadron at Port Arthur. Now England is demanding a quid pro quo if concessions have been made to other powers.

It has been suggested that the Britisher and Japanese jointly occupy Wei Hai Wei. The situation at Kiao Chou Bay remains unchanged. Germany is unyielding and the Chinese consuls are divided as to whether there will be peace or war with Germany. China regards Russia as her only friend and is asking her advice.

BY WAY OF GIBRALTAR.

Portsmouth, Eng. Dec. 22—The German warships Deutschland and Gefion, under command of Prince Henry of Prussia, started today for Gibraltar.

The New Collector.

Collector F. M. Simmons says he does not expect E. C. Duncan to take charge of the revenue office until February 1. He cannot be confirmed before January 5th, when Congress again meets, and then must file his bond and arrangements must be made to have a special agent of the Treasury Department come here and make the transfer of the office.

CHRISTMAS ADVICE

may be wasted, as it is only the wise that profit by other people's experience, but we will give it for what it is worth. You will get more real satisfaction, comfort and wear out of one suit of custom tailor-made clothing than you will out of twenty ready-made suits. Why not? What is a tailor for? To fit every curve, remedy every defect of figure, have your collar lay just so, and give you the style of a gentleman. We do it every time.

Facts Worth Studying.

If the Southern Stock-Mutual pays no larger dividends than the 20 per cent. now paid, and the business increases during the next seven years in the same ratio it has increased during the last three years, the actual saving for the ten years to policy-holders in North and South Carolina will be $194,822.00, and to the policy-holders in Greensboro alone, $26,237.00. Besides this the Company's assets (reinsurance reserve and surplus) represented by still larger figures will be kept at home and invested in the state. What better investment can the public make than by upholding an institution like this?

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 22, 1897.

You can get the telegraphic news twelve hours earlier in THE TELEGRAM than in any paper that gets into Greensboro, and for four dollars a year less.

Now will the winter of the dog-owner's discontent begin to make its voice heard in the land.

Many democratic good wishes follow the prophecy of Senator William E. Chandler in its flight.

Is there any connnection between South Carolina's two hundred murders this year and her dispensary whiskey?

Governor Atkinson, of Georgia, is going to Mexico for a rest which suggests how tired our own excellent Excellency must be.

Whatever may be done about our postoffice appointment, we will humbly ask the hungry citizen to, please sir, leave us the office.

A Missouri editor reports that he is going to the springs to cure an attack of dyspepsia brought on by over-indulgence in roast shoat. Ah, it must be good to be an editor in Missouri.

A New York genius has invented a theatre hat that is transparent. If he will kindly render the heads of the wearers equally so he can save the world much useless worry.

Durham has heard of the Kansas town that applied the soft pedal to "A Hot Time" and proposes to do likewise. It strikes the man up a tree that a town that has put up with Blackwell's Durham Bull whistle for a decade or so need not get nervous over "A Hot Time."

Standard oil stock has jumped 12 points. It is not surprising. Stock in a concern that can build universities and buy legislatures for pastime, that bulldozes political economists and nations with equal facility, ought to be valuable. It will be recalled that only a few days ago the War Lord of Germany was made to "bow the pregnant hinges of the knee" in order that the nation of savants might have choice oil for midnight consumption. Who would not go twelve points better to share, even to the extent of one stock, in such a triumph? Then, too, the holder has his pro rata part of the renown which the president of the Standard Oil Trust has bought by the cubic yard. Twelve points is a small matter.

There is a second Boutelle in the House of Representatives.—Norfolk Landmark. The Landmark must have gone off prematurely. There is only and ever can be but one Mr. Boutelle. Nature which, like poor Shakespeare, is not given to repetition would certainly not go out of her way to work off a fac-simile of the Maine statesman. Once would be enough for the good old Dame. We have always regarded Mr. Boutelle as a mistake. Nature did not mean to, but she owes mankind an apology for her carelessness. Then, too, if she were to turn them out as fast as Mr. Boutelle can make a fool of himself there are only two States in the Union that would send one to Congress—Maine and Kansas. Nay, nay, one Boutelle is a plenty.

As We Were Saying.

The Fayetteville Observer says that nearly $100,009 a year leaves Fayetteville to pay for retail purchases made in northern cities. Large amounts go from all our towns and cities, and in most instances the purchasers could do just as well by buying from home dealers. The home merchants pay the taxes and help to support the communities in which they live. It is short-sighted attempts at economy to drive them out of business by buying everything through the mails. This is a matter that is seasonable just now.—News and Observer.

MAD AS WET HENS.

They Did Not Have the Pull and Got Sadly Left.

Advices received here that the postmaster general has consented to the appointment at an early date of Col. Lybrook for the Winston postoffice and W. P. Ormsby for the Salem office have thrown the opposition in a state of consternation and they are as mad as wet hens.

As late as yesterday Mayor Crutchfield felt over confident and some of his friends at Washington expressed themselves in a private letter here as more than hopeful, but they did not have Linney and Pritchard down so well as they thought.

They will now have ample opportunity to "bitterly antagonize Lybrook's confirmation," but their efforts will be entirely fruitless. They may as well submit gracefully to their defeat.

While the appointment may be made today, yet it is scarcely expected before the first of the year.—Winston Journal.

O, SHADE OF VANCE!

Jeter Pritchard and Marion Butler are Bad Enough, but—

A Washington special to this morning's News and Observer says:

North Carolina is to get another plum in the foreign service, and the recipient is a negro. His name is Prof. J. H. Smythe, of Wilson. His appointment as minister to Liberia was agreed on today, and will be officially announced after the holiday recess. Smythe is endorsed by Senator Pritchard.

There is no denying the fact that Mr. Pritchard stands close to the president and gets almost everything he goes after.

It is given out tonight that Senator Pritchard will succeed Judge Dick, who, it is said, has communicated with the president on the subject.

Judge Dick, so the story goes, will retire whenever the president agrees on his successor, und unless there is a change in program, Pritchard will be the lucky man.

In the event of Pritchard's transfer to the bench, Virgil Lusk, the knowing ones say, will be appointed to the vacancy in the senate.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for consumption, coughs and colds. I cannot say enough for its merits.' Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

HORSEWHIPPED THE MINISTER.

Two Young Women Resent His Remarks About Girls Who Dance.

Webster City, Ia., Dec. 21.—A dance held on Saturday night in Wright county, just over the line, evoked the censure of the Rev. N. A. Forrest in his sermon at the Walnut Grove Presbyterian church on Sunday morning. The dance wound up in a row, and he said no woman who thought anything of herself would attend such a gathering. Misses Lillie Barstow and Mary Cunningham, who had attended the dance, were in the congregation. They went to their homes, and, getting whips, returned to the church, meeting the minister as he was leaving. Miss Cunningham asked: "Did you mean what you said in church this morning?"

"Yes, I did."

The words were no sooner out of his mouth than she gave him a severe cut over the face. His wife, who was with him, screamed and ran, and Miss Barstow then took a hand. The minister tried to protect his face with his arms and hands from the downpour of blows, but he could not do it effectively. After a few minutes of applying the whip the young women went to their homes.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

The Pardon Mill.

The Governor commutes to life imprisonment the death sentence of Riley Pate, convicted of murder at the September term of Yancey Superior Court. He gives the following reasons: "The papers in the case show that the public sentiment in Yancey is against the execution of this prisoner. The commutation is recommended by the father of the deceased, by county officers, by large numbers of citizens and all of the jury who tried the case. It does not seem to be a case where capital punishment should be inflicted."

He also pardoned Preston Andrews convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to three years, and Robert Dougherty, same offence, for twenty years.—Col. Olds' Correspondence.

University Student Arrested.

Richmond, Dec. 21.—On December 12, John A. Campbell, caterer for the students' mess hall at the University of Virginia, was chloroformed and robbed of a considerable sum of money. Yesterday afternoon, Stacey Betzler, of Newark, N. J., a medical student at the University, was arrested on the charge of being concerned in the robbery. He will be given a preliminary hearing tomorrow afternoon.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Just think of it! Shoes at half price at Johnson & Dorsett's.

Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud present a new advertisement today.

There is a change in Johnson & Dorsett's advertisement today.

Anything and everything good to eat at Hudson's. See ad. today.

Read the statement of the Greensboro National Bank on third page.

E. B. Jones, of Winston, was in the city today and left on the north bound train.

The beautiful pet deer, Rambler, belonging to Mr. Garland Daniel is sick.

Something additional about Christmas presents in Richardson & Fariss' ad. today.

In his new ad. today Andrews calls attention to his Xmas display of confections and fireworks.

W. P. Ormsby, member of the legislature from Forsyth in the last assembly, was in the city today.

Hon. Thomas Settle and bride came in from Washington last night and will spend a day or two in the city.

Hon. Spencer Blackburn was here last night returning from Washington to his home at Jefferson, Ashe county.

The foreman of The Telegram office, B. S. Phillips, leaves tonight for Bristol, Tenn., to spend Chrismas.

Mrs. R. S. McClamroch and little son, Master Roland, went to Goldsboro today to spend the holidays with relatievs there.

The Christmas entertainments of both the West Market Street and Centenary Sunday Schools will come off tomorrow night.

J. T. Winslow, Register of Deeds of Randolph county, a brother of our townsman, A. R. Winslow, was in the city today.

A dog belonging to Bill Smithers began actiing queer yesterday and was immediately killed. He was bitten by the supposed rabid dog last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Merrimon have returned from their bridal tour and are spending some days in the city before going to their future home at Charlotte.

If the kind of weather we are now having keeps up a day or two longer Santa Claus will be forced to leave his sleigh and reindeer several miles north of us and come to Greensboro in a mud scow.

Some needed work has been done by Sam Brown and his force on the sidewalk on Lewis street at Glascock's foundry. It was a small job, but carries with it a large benefit.

Remember the Carnival for the benefit of the Brockmann Orchestra, Dec. 29th and 30th. An interesting time is promised, and a great deal of hard work is being done by the members and others to make the occasion an enjoyable one.

The depots are crowded every day. In addition to the regular commercial travel there are scores of college girls going home to spend the holidays, and lots of young men passing from Guilford College, the University, Trinity and other colleges.

It is thought that Dr. Robinson, who is in Baltimore for treatment, will not be able to return home before February. His case has really developed into hydrophobia, but it is thought to be a mild form. His many friends had hoped the report was a mistake, and now they will devoutly pray that he may be cured.

Mr. J. H. Neese has sold a beautiful Italian marble monument to Mr. Daniel Fry, of Carthage, to be erected at his wife's grave in the cemetery there. It will be shipped next week and Mr. Neese will go down to put it up. Mr. Neese's business is widening out, just like many other Greensboro industries.

It now comes to light that the dog which, last week, threw the city into a state of consternation was bitten by a mad dog about a year ago, along with three others, two of which were instantly killed by their owners, the other one went mad and was killed and this one was allowed to go at large, and only recently developed the disease.

Do you remember the prediction made by The Telegram some time ago that Greensboro would ere long have a new depot? It has not yet been built, but wait. The Southern knows as well as anybody that the old depot is inadequate and that the mud and slush around it is almost unbearable; and it also knows that Greensboro is one of the best places on its whole line, and The Telegram believes that it will not be long before the new depot will be a reality. Reports and rumors of deals are not worth a snap. Wait for the business to begin.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c.

A Victim of the Ordinance.

The first victim of the dog ordinance was made this morning. A large dog which was given to loafing about Ruben's tailoring establishment, but which did belong to Ruben, was shot by Policeman Jordan. Somebody started the canard that the dog had bitten people and the story was soon all over town. As a matter of fact the dog showed evidences of nothing save fright. After three shots he was finally disposed of. This should serve as a warning that the ordinance will be enforced. Keep your dog off the street.

Christmas Holiday Excursion Rates.

The Southern Railway has authorized a rate of 4 cents per mile one way for round trip tickets during the holidays.
